Greetings,

I think all you have done is slap Mr. Bill Gates on the hand and said play nice. You are doing nothing to make sure this will not continue or happen again. Microsoft is a monopoly, that you have stated, now by law that is illegal. Every other monopoly, look at AT&T, was broken up and not only survived but thrived. Why will you not do this to Microsoft? If you do not then you are not enforcing the laws as you are supposed to do.

A very upset end user,
